CHEDER CHABAD BOYS DIVISION

LETTER FROM THE MENAHEL:

Dear Parents,

This Shabbos is the Shabbos of Matan Torah. There are several ways in which the giving of the Torah reinforces the importance of education. One of the interesting aspects of Matan Torah is that the first method in which the Torah was delivered was instruction, like a teacher and student. Hashem taught the Yidden the first two dibros, of the aseres hadibros.

The Torah was also communicated in written form via the luchos, and there were other forms of delivery as well, the first step was to teach the Yidden like a teacher teaching students.

Our children learn from us in many ways, we lead by example, we assist them physically and we help them in other ways, Matan Torah teaches us to communicate primarily as a teacher, discuss and talk-through the what and why we do things.

In the Friediker Rebbe's accounts about his childhood, he records fascinating discussions his father had with him when he a youth. These moments of verbal communication are echoed in the first moments of Hashem speaking to us at Matan Torah.

May this winter break invigorate and freshen up our families and may it strengthen their bond with the Torah upon their return to cheder.

Wishing you a good Shabbos,

Rabbi Kaplan
