CHEDER CHABAD BOY'S DIVISION

LETTER FROM THE MENAHEL:

Dear Parents,

Shavuos brings a special message to us about our children. Beneinu areivim baadeinu, our children are our guarantors. When Hashem gave us His most precious possession, he insisted that His gift be used and applied. The gift comes with a responsibility to learn and to conduct our lives according to its teachings.

Our children are not biblically obligated to perform mitzvos. This tells us that our children are our guarantors primarily in the area of Torah learning

Originally the Torah was meant to be memorized by each Jew. We were supposed to be a living Torah and the Oral Torah would never be written in a book. During the years of hardship and oppression, the Torah was written down. Nowadays, living in a malchus shel chesed, in a free world, our children are once again able to learn Torah undisturbed. You care for their needs and provide them with years to learn and grow into a living Torah!

Let us remember our responsibility as Yidden, men and boys, to learn Torah at every free moment. When us parents go out to earn a living we may sense that we are being alienated from Torah and we feel pain for not being able to spend our lives learning Torah. When we look at our children we are comforted the gift we are giving them of being able to learn Torah day and night.

Thank you to the PTA for making the first day of Sivan the day that represents achdus among Yidden special with a treat for every student and for expressing their appreciation to the Rebbies. A special thank you to Mrs. Litvack for hand-delivering the treats!

Wishing you a good Shabbos and kabolas HaTorah besimcha ubepnimiyus,

Rabbi Kaplan
