FROM the MENAHEL

Dear Parents,

Today marks day 10,001 since Gimmel Tammuz, would like to share a thought about this milestone.

צייט דער מיט לעבן דארף'מ Bereishis. In the beginning. Rebbies and students got off to a fresh start yesterday. I visited every classroom, and observed fresh faces of talmidim sitting calmly and attentively listening to their Rebbi and participating in their learning and davening. I am sharing with you, dear parents, the feeling of security and reassurance your children experienced coming into cheder, knowing where their desks and cubbies are, and knowing what to expect in their schedule regarding times, subjects and learning styles. Being familiar with their Rebbi's style and expectation allows them maximum possible success. Yes, it is a new beginning, coupled with the security gained from the knowledge of the past. For the week ahead IYH, talmidim should get back on track with reviewing what they learned in the evenings and making time to learn on their own as well. This is the perfect time of the year for your child to take on a haclotoh tovah for the year ahead. Mazal tov to Rabbi Shaya Margareten on the birth of a baby girl! Thank you for utilizing the available days to enhance the building and further beautify the cheder building and classrooms. This Shabbos is Shabbos mevorchim. Please encourage your son to recite Tehilim and to bring back a note recording the time he spent saying Tehilim. May all our tefilos be answered this year with the ultimate good news, the coming of Moshiach tzidkeinu now. Wishing you a good Shabbos,

Rabbi Kaplan
